

THE U.C. WORLD

Doings in and Around the University.

Oakland's Garbage to go Through Berkeley

And Dumped in Contra Costa County.

The Attention of the Board of Trustees and Health Officer Called to the Fact.

In the University World.

The University faculty has adopted regulations which will disappoint a large number of University students who are expecting to enter the ranks of teachers after leaving college. Much more work in pedagogy will be required of them. Heretofore students desiring to obtain teachers' certificates could combine their pedagogy with work which they intended to teach, but henceforth as much more work will be required by the various departments as was hitherto spent in pedagogy. This regulation, however, will not apply to those seniors whose schedules for graduation have already been approved by the classification committee. Many students, however, have been taking work in pedagogy who have not yet filed their schedules, and these look puzzled, wondering if their past work is for naught. This is because they will now be unable to comply exactly with the faculty's regulation.

Every senior must file his schedule for graduation, stating the work already completed and that to be undertaken, between Monday, August 26th, and Monday, September 2d. This is registration day and all students in the three upper classes must file with the recorder their study cards, showing the courses they intend to pursue this college term. The curriculum for the term has been posted.

Every one was glad to see the genial face of the football manager, Herbert Lang, around college again. He has been off on a camping trip and is now back and ready to boom his favorite sport. The crack 220 yard sprinter, Barnes, will probably not be back this year. With him and Scroggins both gone, the athletic managers are looking up new material. It is expected that the present freshman class will take to athletics with a vim.

President Martin Kellogg of the University is in San Jose on business connected with the college. From there he will go to Sacramento to attend a meeting of the State Board of Education, of which he is a member. He will return to Berkeley on Tuesday next.

The Young Men's Christian Association connected with the University will hold its first meeting of the term this afternoon in Stiles' Hall. It will be in the form of a rally. All freshmen are particularly invited to attend. Galen M. Fisher, who was the Berkeley representative at the college Y. M. C. A. conference at Geneva, during the vacation, will give an account of his trip and the conference.

The cruiser Olympia steamed down past West Berkeley yesterday afternoon on her way to Olympia.

Look Out For Them.

For the past week there has been a fight in Oakland between the Oakland City Council, the Oakland Board of Health and the garbage men. The Board of Health refused to allow any swill or garbage to be dumped within the city limits and consequently for over a week not a particle of garbage has been removed from any place in Oakland, and instead of Oakland being a city of culture and churches it has been designated as the city of a thousand disagreeable odors.

Last evening the city let a contract to A. B. Tennant, who has secured a piece of land in Contra Costa county just across the Berkeley line, where he will dump the garbage from Oakland.

He has made arrangements with the Southern Pacific Company to haul this garbage from Sixteenth street in Oakland to the new dumping grounds and of course all of this filth, smell and all will have to pass through Berkeley, and in this connection while we believe that Health Officer Rowell will prevent this if possible, unless the cars are covered, it may be necessary to have an ordinance passed to cover the case, so we call attention to the matter now in order that it may be introduced at the next meeting.

Honorary President.

Rev. Dr. J. K. McLean, who was elected president of the Political Equality Club, a new organization formed to work for woman suffrage, sent in a letter at the last meeting asking to be excused from serving, as he had too many other engagements to permit him to take time for this one. This decision was a great disappointment to the ladies, and they exerted themselves to induce Dr. McLean to reconsider his determination. He has now consented to let his name stand as the head of the organization, upon the understanding that the position is purely honorary, and that the vice presidents will attend to the work.

Work on the Canal.

NEW YORK, August 14.—Captain J. A. Crossman, of the Panama Railroad Company's Columbian line steamer Alliance, said tonight the Panama canal authorities were advertising in the Colon papers for skilled mechanics to work on the canal. He says there are now about 1000 laborers working on the canal, and two dredges are at work on the Panama side of the isthmus. He said there is money enough to keep 10,000 men working for two years.

Fire at San Bernardino.

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 14.—Walker's candy store, Waite's fruit store, Luis Anther's barber shop, A. D. Boren's and T. J. Ford's offices, Higgin's & Corcoran's repair shop and Charles Brown's shoe shop were destroyed by fire about 1 o'clock this morning. The total loss is about $5000, with insurance of $800.

A new association has been organized called the California Guild of Letters, the members of which obligate themselves to buy at least one volume per year of books by California writers which are approved by the guild. William Greer Harrison is the president, and Mrs. Chas. Webb Howard is the secretary. The first book to be published will be a volume of poems by Miss Ina D. Coolbrith.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brehm returned from their outing at Lake Tahoe today.

The Ecuadorian Consul was a visitor to West Berkeley last evening.

A family who have long resided on Addison street removed this morning to San Francisco.

The Mechanics Fair is now in full blast in San Francisco and will be visited by Berkeley people in large numbers.

A couple of engines collided at Pinole this morning and the wrecking train from West Oakland had to go up the road and clear away the wreck.

Notices of street work for the grading, macadamizing and curbing of Walnut street were posted by Street Superintendent Chick this morning. He also posted street notices for the laying of a sidewalk on Alcatraz avenue.

The Board of Trustees will meet again tomorrow evening and as usual there will be a vast amount of important business come before the Board, especially street work, which it is desired to have started before the rainy season sets in.

The young people of the First Baptist Church will give a birthday party in the parlors of the church tomorrow evening. The proceeds will be devoted to the electric light fund of the church. The Admission fee will be one cent for every year of a person's age. Old folks are specially invited.

Mrs. Woodman, of Chico, lectured at the Methodist church on Tuesday evening to a very small audience, owing to the fact that the meeting had not been properly advertised. She took for her subject "Citizen Suffrage," and those who heard her say that she handled the subject in a very able manner.

Maloney & Clier have removed their meat market from the old stand into the building formerly occupied by George Schmidt. The old store is having an arch cut into the wall connecting it with the store of Sol Greenhood. When the work is completed it will be occupied by Mr. Greenhood's brother as a dry goods house.

The organ recital at the residence of Thomas W. Whalley this afternoon was a magnificent affair and all present crowded around Mr. Whalley to congratulate him upon the grand success of his new organ, and also to congratulate him upon the fact that it was manufactured in Berkeley.

Connie Newell has applied to the Board of Supervisors for a license to conduct a saloon on San Pablo avenue, corner of Dalton street. He may have considerable trouble in getting a license as under the new law passed at the last Legislature he will have to get the consent of the directors of the Golden Gate Sanitary District, he being in that district.

The John P. Lovell Arms Company, the great manufacturers of bicycles, was established in 1840. It is said that this firm spent over $100,000 in printer's ink last year. The consequence is their business has grown to be the largest in this line in the United States. Col. Ben S. Lovell is the treasurer of the company and relieves his father from a great deal of the duty of superintending. The Lovell Diamond Cycles are known everywhere.

The Board of Directors for Berkeley schools has made a rule that all claims against the department must be presented by the Friday previous to the first Monday in the month. This has been done to enable the Finance Committee to examine the bills without encroaching upon the time devoted to the meeting of the Board. It is probable that the Directors will have a temporary building constructed in the Kellogg school lot for recitation purposes. The cost will not exceed the amount that would be paid for the rent of outside rooms during the year and the building would be very much more desirable and convenient.

KEEP IT HERE.

Mrs. Worthington Again Convicted.

Important Decision by Judge Ellsworth

Defining the Duties of City Councils

In the Granting of Railroad Franchises—Other Local News.

Self Explanatory.

San Francisco, Aug. 14, 1895. Mr. W. J. Martin, Land Agent, South San Francisco Land Improvement Co., San Francisco, Cal:

Dear Sir:—In reply to your favor of the 12th inst. and subsequent interviews on the matter I would say that the proposition of the Progressive Club of West Berkeley, California being satisfactory to us in all its terms, we cannot at this time act as you wish. If they carry out in good faith with us the terms as proposed by themselves we have no desire to look further. In event, however, that they fail to carry out these propositions we will be in a position to entertain a proposition from your company and others who, since the agitation of this matter, have been endeavoring to make terms with us.

Very Respectfully Yours,
JOHN J. FITZGERALD.

An Unjust Verdict.

Mrs. Louise Worthington has once more been convicted of the murder of Henry Baddeley, and will receive her sentence in a day or two. Here is a poor woman who was first seduced and then deserted, who in frenzy killed the man who had broken up her home and disgraced herself and family, and she has been hounded into San Quentin without having one friend to assist her. On the other hand, there is Durrant, who is charged with one of the most dastardly crimes of the century, who is being lionized; whom the Sheriff allows every freedom in jail, and who allows him to ride on the outside of the prison van, so that he may not be contaminated by coming in contact with the homeless outcast who has stolen some article of value in order to keep from starving, or who in a drunken row may have killed his companion. That is the difference in this world, and it is no wonder that at times we hear the complaint that there is no God, and that the churches are failures. On the one hand a poor woman is seduced and disgraced by a worthless fellow whom she kills, and she had a right to kill him, while on the other hand a society young man debauches and murders two innocent young girls, and all the safe guards of the law are thrown about him in order that he may escape the gallows or the State Prison.

Very Important.

Judge Ellsworth rendered an important decision today in regard to the granting of railroad franchises by City Councils and Boards of Supervisors. He decided two points that have been in dispute in Alameda county since the law in question went into effect in 1893. The questions were brought before the court in the suit of A. D. Thomson against the Board of Supervisors to compel that body to accept his bid for a franchise.

This decision may have some bearing upon the question of franchises now before the Board of Trustees, as Judge Ellsworth states that the provision in the State law in reference to franchises makes the special provisions in charters inoperative.

Mr. Gad Alwyn of Lorin is a man who looks a project all over before entering into it. The consequence is he never makes a mistake in his judgment. He has arrived at the conclusion that the GAZETTE is the paper to represent his business in. As will be seen by our columns a great many other business men think just the same as Mr. Alwyn does. Advertising in your home paper accomplishes two purposes. It brings a man's business before the public eye, and it goes to show strangers that the town is a thriving one. That brings people to the place to live in, and those people patronize the parties who advertise.

SILVER CONVENTION.

The California Silver Convention, which is to be held at Metropolitan Hall on Monday next, promises to be one of the most important ever held in the State, as it will have a great effect upon the coming presidential election. All the delegates to the number of 1000 are leading men of both the great parties of this State, and among them are Senator White and Senator Perkins, Judge Budd, M. M. Estee, Miss Phoebe Couzzins, W. H. L. Barnes, John P. Young, Timothy Guy Phelps, Thomas J. Clunie, T. V. Cator, Henry I. Willey, Chas. N. Fox, A. R. Colton, W. R. Dorsey and numerous others.

At this convention silver will be discussed from every standpoint and all those who are unfamiliar with the agitation now going on should attend the convention and listen to the discussions and the debates. We have no doubt but that the convention will declare in favor of the white metal at a ratio of 16 to 1.

This convention will make no nominations, it will simply endeavor to make it plain to both the Democratic and Republican parties that they must put the silver question into their National platforms if they desire the country to return to its original prosperity or if they want to be successful during the next campaign.

HAD not Jailer White discovered a plot to break jail by the Hollands and Openheimer, now on trial before the Superior Court of Alameda county, there might now be two or three county officials dead. Berry Holland is a desperate man, and he has got a life imprisonment staring him in the face. With this, a murder or two on his hands would not bother him, if he could get his liberty, consequently he made up his mind to get himself and companions out of jail, and to this end he made arrangements for his wife to smuggle into him and his companions guns and pistols with which to kill the jailer and his assistants providing they made any attempt to frustrate the attempt. In the letters to his wife Holland states that he would not hesitate to kill and fight his way out of jail over the dead bodies of the officers. The wife was making the arrangements to procure the weapons wanted and in all probability the attempt to escape would have been made on Friday evening. There are a number of desperate men in the Alameda County Jail and if the officers do not exercise the greatest amount of care trouble will ensue.

ALTHOUGH the week is drawing near a close the jury box in the Durrant case is still unfilled, and it looks as though the defense will keep it that way by every means in their power in order that they can make good their claim for a change of venue. It may be far better for Durrant to be tried in one of the country towns of the State. Crimes are committed in large cities daily and except for a fleeting thought pass out of the minds of the average city man and woman in contemplation of what the next one will be. In the country it is different. There crime is rare, and especially such a horrible one as the one Durrant is on trial for, and it is quickly punished if there is any evidence of guilt whatever, and with the array of evidence that there is against Durrant, he would be found guilty in a very few minutes in any country town in the State.

THE readers of the GAZETTE will remember an account published in these columns a few weeks ago in reference to the romantic marriage of a Mrs. Freer, who was old enough to be married on land, but her youthful spouse, Ine Heydenfeldt, was not, consequently a tug boat and its captain were pressed into service and the couple were married while suffering all the pangs of seasickness. The marriage caused quite a sensation at the time as young Heydenfeldt is a good catch from the fact that he will come into quite a fortune when he becomes of age, which will be very shortly now. This notoriety had just about died out when again the wife of the young man comes unpleasantly before the public. She is the widow of the late Louis Freer, of Oroville, and she conceived a scheme whereby she might raise some money on a couple of hundred volumes in two ways. She had 200 raffle tickets printed, and then went about among the attorneys, and with tears in her eyes and trembling lips asked them to buy a ticket for the raffle, which would take place on the 15th of July. In this way she managed to dupe about 70 lawyers. They have since demanded a return of their money, but it has not been forthcoming, and as she has sold the books there is now talk of a criminal prosecution for obtaining money under false pretenses.

LONG JOHN WILKINS, a prominent Democratic politician is after the scalp of Judge Budd, father of the Governor, whom he claims put him to work in the interest of the Governor, with the promise that he should be the janitor of the State capitol. When Mr. Wilkins made a demand for the office he was promptly told by the Governor that he could not have it. He then concluded that he would like to earn $100 per month as a collector at one of the wharves controlled by the Harbor Commissioners, but again he was doomed to disappointment, so, after waiting for the appointment that never came, he is now amusing himself by publishing the letters that he received from the father of the Governor. Just how he can hold the Governor responsible for the promises of his father Mr. Wilkins has so far failed to inform the public.

IN England the Government owns the railroads and those who have ridden on them say that they are poorly managed, badly kept and never in repair. In speaking of English railroads, a few days ago, Andrew Carnegie has got the isle of Great Britain angry because he stated that it would pay England to burn up all of her railroads and replace them with American models.

The Wilmerding School.

It is very desirable that the Wilmerding school should be located in Berkeley, but such will not be the case unless our citizens take some action in the matter. There is the Ashby avenue Improvement Club, the West Berkeley Improvement Club and the Good Government Club, all of whom should take some action in this matter right away. It might be well for the Board of Trustees at their meeting tomorrow evening to pass a resolution inviting the Board of Regents to place the school in Berkeley where it would be in touch with Professors and where its usefulness would become much greater.

Notice.

My wife, Rosalie Dajas, having left my bed and board without cause or reason, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her.

Dr. A. claims to be an adept in the art of diagnosis. On being called in to see a lady, directly he had been admitted he remarked with a knowing smile: "I see what your complaint is; you are suffering from a disordered stomach and nervous spasms."

"Sir!"

"Let me finish: your temperament is somewhat exacting."

Here the lady interrupted him: "Why, it is not myself who is ill, it is my uncle!"

Planned to Escape.

In the trial of Berry Holland, one of the three men accused of robbing Garrett & Taggart's drug store, the prosecution yesterday introduced some damaging evidence against him. While confined in jail awaiting trial Holland wrote several letters to his wife asking her to smuggle him in tools by which he, with his companions, could make their escape.

The letters were intercepted by Sheriff White, who had copies made before forwarding them. Mrs. Holland, while on the stand, admitted having received them.

In the letters Holland stated that if he was forced to trial he felt certain that it would result in his conviction. Mrs. Holland never attempted to carry out the plot. She has been under surveillance ever since the letters were discovered by the Sheriff.

Miss Lane Withdraws

California Umpire Mobbed.

Umpire Sheridan, who was regarded as the best man who ever officiated in that capacity on this Coast, came very nearly being badly beaten, if not fatally injured, by a mob at Terra Haute, Ind., Sunday. The home club was beaten out by Indianapolis, and the result was that the bleacher contingent at the Terra Haute grounds was very much disappointed and wrought up. Concerning the affair the following dispatch was sent out:

"The Indianapolis ball players were mobbed here today at the conclusion of the game. During the game there were many close points, and several decisions of Sheridan were taken exception to by the bleachers.

"In the eighth inning the game was stopped for fifteen minutes, the crowd surging into the field and making all sorts of riotous demonstrations. Umpire Sheridan was threatened, as were the Indianapolis players who stood by him and prevented violence.

"After the game had been finished and Indianapolis had won, the crowd was frenzied. A rush was made for Sheridan, and as a result three of the Indianapolis men were injured. Motz, Hogan and Fisher. The latter's ankle was sprained and Motz and Hogan received bruises about the face and body but their injuries are not serious."

REDHOT HAYMAKING.

One Amateur's Experience Was Complete and Satisfactory In One Day.

The hottest experience I ever met with in the country was the day I helped to make hay. The farmer began to call us shortly after midnight, and after a long siege of intermittent yelling he succeeded in his design of getting us out of bed several hours before it was necessary. It was then 3 a. m. About two hours later we had our breakfasts and were entering the hayfield.

When one gets into trouble, the opening scenes are always alluring. A gorgeous sunrise was in full swing in the east. The dew lay on the grass, and the air was cool and invigorating. I could not but agree with the poets that the scent of the new mown hay was very inspiring. I felt like a colt and was keen to jump into the sport.

The first heat consisted in bunching the hay after the rake, which the farmer himself drove about the field with many loud "gees" and "haws," but few "whoas." The old rascal took a fiendish delight in crowding us. It began to look a little like work.

When the hay was all bunched, the high ladder wagons were driven into the field. Being a novice, I was assigned the duty of loading. I stood upon the wagon and built the load as the hay was pitched to me theoretically, but on me actually. The first dose knocked all the poetry out of me.

The blazing sun had sucked up all the dewdrops and was now high in the east. He seemed to focus his scorching rays on the wagons, and the hay crackled and sizzled about me like frying fat. It was noon 20 times all at once. I thought I was becoming liquified. I sank to my neck in the hay and roasted in a concentrated oven of absorbed solar heat. Not a breeze stirred. No friendly cloud hovered near to screen the orb of fire. I vainly tried to fancy I was in the Arctic ocean and the wagon was a floating iceberg. The old pitchers, inured to the heat and the avocation, still fed on the hay.

We were jerked into the barn—from the frying pan into the fire—and I was there barbecued for half an hour in the hot beds of the mow.

Out we shot again into the broiling field. All day long this process of slow torture continued. It was a little drama from the snowless land inserted into real life, the farmer impersonating satan, the pitchers his archangels and myself Charon's lost passenger.

But, thank heaven, the farmer was no Joshua, and the sun at last completed his trip across the skies and disappeared beneath the mountain. The next day my place on the wagon was occupied by some other fool.—Philadelphia Press.

The Bank of Scotland.

The Bank of Scotland, now 200 years old, naturally sought to encourage Scottish industries, and this is shown in the manufacture of its paper for notes. The first large notes were made in 1696, 20 shilling notes, as they were termed, being only issued on April 7, 1704. In 1729 the bank's paper was manufactured at Giffordhall, near Haddington. Attendants had to be present in the bank's interest, and their account was paid by the bank. One item was "ale and bread furnished to the workmen, 10s.," and another for "drink money to servants, £4 17s. 6d." The items are suggestive, although it is possible they only represented drink money in name.

In 1735 the bank got its 20 shilling banknotes made at Collington Mill (Colinton mill), and there is an "account for drink money" in connection with it. A barber came twice from Edinburgh to shave the officials and received 3s. for his professional attendance. Green tea must have cost at this time 24s. per pound, for in the bill a quarter pound sells for 6s. At this Colinton mill the bank appears to have kept all the employees in food during the time the paper was being manufactured. A man was engaged 12 days at the paper mill in dressing meat, and he cut up in that time 200 pounds of it. Meat and mutton cost only 2½d. per pound in those good old days. A hen is charged at 8d., a duck at 9d., one "sol-lan goose," 1s. 8d.; a dozen eggs, 3d.; six chickens, only 1s. 4d., and a wild fowl, 10d.; cheese cost 4d. per pound and bacon 8d. per pound. In 1769 the bank's note paper was made at Redhaugh Mill (Redhall mill).—Chambers' Journal.

The California School of Design opened at the Mark Hopkin's Institute of Art today. There will be classes on five days of the week instead of four as was the case last year. The landscape classes will do their sketchings on Saturdays instead of Wednesdays as heretofore. This will make a gain of a day. One of the requirements for affiliation with the University of California is the issuing of certificates of proficiency. This will be done this year. The regular teachers will give instruction in water color and pastel.
